Supplier Code of Conduct

The Anton Paar Group Supplier Code of Conduct serves as a binding guideline for all suppliers and their business relationships to ensure compliance with our principles. The current version of this document can be accessed at any time on the website or the intranet.

Our responsibility for a strong partnership through shared values

Our suppliers are an essential part of our success and we therefore strive for long-term and sustainable cooperation based on mutual trust and continuous development. Our partnerships with suppliers are founded on the principles of ecological, ethical and social responsibility.

The Anton Paar Group Supplier Code of Conduct serves as the basis for cooperation with our suppliers. In addition to all applicable laws, our suppliers are also committed to complying with our principles. They must ensure that their employees, their affiliated companies and their other business relationship partners are aware of and comply with the principles of this code or operate according to their own comparable code that meets our requirements.

Any violation of legal requirements or our principles is considered a significant impairment of the contractual relationship. If non-compliance is suspected, we reserve the right to request information about the relevant facts. If our requirements are demonstrably not met or if improvement measures are not implemented after a reasonable period of time, a decision will be made regarding the establishment or continuation of the business relationship.

The Supplier Code of Conduct was created based on international conventions such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises on Responsible Business Conduct, the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (UNGPs) and the International Labour Organization's (ILO) international labor standards.
